Mr. W. A. Bradfield
Freed-Hardeman College
Henderson, Tennessee

Dear Brother Bradfield:

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the efforts put forth by you and the college to insure a successful alumni banquet here at Cookeville. I have learned today that several students present last evening were favorably impressed for the first time at the prospect of attending a Christian College. This means that you performed successfully the task of selling Christian education to those who attended our banquet.

Enclosed you will find a receipt from Tennessee Tech; all the final details have been wrapped up and our banquet is history.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
